

MANNERS MATTER - Christine Lancaster, Presenter

12:00-1:30

Monday, 5/14/18

YOU ARE INVITED!

Ever wonder how royalty dines? Join the instructor for lunch and find out the following: the proper way to enter a room; the proper handshake and eye contact; the continental style of dining; the silent service code and much more.

Christine Lancaster graduated from the Protocol School of Washington, DC where she studied etiquette under the authority of Dorothea Johnson. A number of organizations use Christine's services to help individuals address business etiquette and fine dining skills.

DETAILS OF THE LUNCH:

The served meal for this presentation is in Thatcher Hall Dining Room - second floor. Thatcher is one building down (towards Pierrepont Ave) from Barrington Student Union (where we have our end-of-semester SOAR luncheons).

For details on the venue location, Go to the SOAR website – www.soarnorthcountry.org and click on "Locations," and under the heading "SUNY Potsdam" choose: "SUNY: Thatcher Hall Dining Room,"

Best parking lots are: lot 20 or lot 22 (i.e. near Van Housen Extension where the SOAR office is located). Walk down Watertown Drive to Barrington Drive. Turn right when you get there. You have arrived at Thatcher!

MENU:

Airline Chicken Breast with Mushrooms & Leeks

Roasted New Potatoes
