

UPCOMING EVENTS at the Potsdam Public Museum

SECOND ANNUAL SANDSTONE FESTIVAL

SEPTEMBER 15-19th 2010

Wednesday September 15th

7 PM SOAR presents for its members: "Building with Potsdam Red Sandstone" presented by Sue Omohundro and John Bridges at the Potsdam Public Museum, and continues on Thursday Sept 16th 10 AM with a guided walking tour.

(This event is open to SOAR members only, call (315) 267-2690 for details.)

Thursday September 16th

Free and Open to the Public:

2 PM walking tour of the historic district of downtown Potsdam with Village Historian Mimi Van Deusen.

7 PM - "Building with Potsdam Red Sandstone," Presented by Sue Omohundro - sandstone historian and preservationist, and John Bridges - historic preservation consultant.

Friday September 17th

10 AM Walking Tour of Potsdam Sandstone buildings with Sue Omohundro and John Bridges

2 PM tour of the Presbyterian Church

3 PM walking tour of Old Main and Old Snell Hall

5-7 PM Jazz at Maxfields, 50/50 raffle for historic preservation.

Saturday September 18th

10 AM Walking tour of the Red Sandstone Trail in Hannawa Falls with geologist Jim Carl Ph.D. Meet at the trail head across from the Hannawa Falls Fire Station - please do not block fire lane. Donation of $5 for tour includes Dr. Carl's handout.

Noon to 4 PM Fall Island Celebration that will include food, music, children's activities and exhibit on the history of Fall Island.

1 PM Tour of Trinity Episcopal Church's Tiffany stained glass windows with historian Betsy Travis.

2 PM Sandstone cutting demonstration with Heritage Stone Mason - John Bridges

Sunday September 19th

2 PM Walking tour of Bayside Cemetery.

Hear the stories of the folks who made contributions to our community. Enjoy the park like setting in a cemetery designed along the Raquette River on land donated by the Clarkson Family. A history of the gate house and grounds will be included. Donations accepted. Meet at the gate house.

For more information about the festival, suggestions or donations - call the museum at (315) 265-6910. Hope to see you there!